Michigan Student Political Issues Convention

In conjunction with National Student Political Issues Week

Sponsored by
Henry Ford Community College
League of Women Voters
Friday, October 20, 2006
12:30—4:00 P.M.

Henry Ford Community College
Dearborn, Michigan

On this day, students from around Michigan will convene at Henry Ford Community College in Dearborn, Michigan as part of the Michigan Student Political Issues Convention. This is the venue where students from Michigan will determine their most important issues that need resolution.

The primary purpose of this convention is to develop a consensus agenda from the student participants. Students will determine their issues in the Caucus Voting Sessions. They will focus on what they deem the most pressing concerns. Students will not address specific solutions; rather, students ask those in office and running for office to find appropriate solutions to their concerns.
